WASHINGTON MATTERS.

(Correspondence of the Richmond Dispatch.)

Reconstruction Laid on the Shelf—The Agricultural Department—Reports on the New Orleans Riots, &c., &c.

WASHINGTON, January 28.

There is now no talk whatever, either of impeachment or of territorializing States. Events have taken quite another shape within the past few days, and so far as this session is concerned, there will be no change. Both Houses evince a disposition to go right away at the legitimate business before it, and seem to have concluded to leave all the side issues for the next Congress to manipulate. The Senate works away with steadiness on the tariff bill, although not so incessantly as Senator Fessenden wishes, and the House has given a rest to reconstruction, and worked to-day on the General and Consular and Diplomatic Appropriation bill.

There is still a strong disposition to oust the present Commissioner of the Agricultural Department, and bills are periodically presented in Congress with that end in view. Mr. Bidwell, who is chairman of the committe on Agriculture, gave notice to-day that he would at an early period introduce a bill to re-organize that department; and this looks as if something is to be done in the matter. The applicants for Mr. Newton's position are not few in number.

The President, to-day, sent to the House all the information in his possession respecting the New Orleans riots, including telegraphic dispatches, which had not previously been communicated. They were called for by a resolution from Mr. Elliott yesterday, and were referred to the select Committee on the New Orleans Riots.

There is no certainty when a vote will be taken on the bills to admit Colorado and Nebraska. The friends thereof are anxious not to have it until a full Congress is in session.

TIMON.

The Meaning of the Vote on the Reference of Stevens's Bill.

The New York Times, Raymond's paper, has the following interesting statement:

Mr. Bingham made the motion to refer some days ago, declaring that he did it because he was for adhering to the amendment, and he desired to test the sense of the House on that point. Mr. Stevens has done everything in his power to prevent this result. He has modified his bill to suit the demand of the extreme men, and has accepted all the amendments offered by members which he thought likely to give the bill additional votes. He accepted Spalding's amendment to declare martial law, changed the preamble to the bill, modified it still further at the suggestion of Mr. Paine, and finally accepted a long amendment which Mr. Shellabarger had prepared after consultation, and which was, in fact, a substitute for the whole bill. He finally made an urgent appeal to Mr. Bingham to withdraw his motion to refer, and allow the bill to be amended in the House, before sending it to the committee. Mr. Bingham refused, because he wished to know directly whether the House would adhere to the constitutional amendment or not. The affirmative vote was composed of fifty-one Republicans and thirty-seven Democrats. The nays were all Republicans, mostly the extreme men in the House. The vote gives a pretty good test of the division of the House. The committee will probably try to put the bill in shape for future action; but the committee itself is divided on the subject, and the reference is generally regarded as a defeat of the entire Radical project of reconstruction for the present session.

The National Intelligencer says:

Every Southern vote that can be kept out of Congress is a vote in the interests of the manufacturing monopolists, the operation of which, as above described by the Post, literally drive the people of the West to the wall. It grinds still further in the dust the prostrate industry of the South. It clips the wings of commerce, which has already fallen off by a million or two of tons. It takes bread from the mouth of the poor. Meantime colossal fortunes are rising mountain high in the Eastern cities. They rise, indeed, "like mountain peaks above the low table-land" of crippled means, of poverty and distress, that expands far and wide at their base.

The West, through some of its Senators, is now protesting, with great earnestness, against not simply a continuance of the present tariff, which has operated as we have described, but against the passage of a bill vastly enlarging the grinding exactions of the former upon the masses. In view of the stupendous exertions of the millionaire manufacturers and affiliated interests here to procure the passage of that measure, those Senators in their hearts cannot but feel that all is in no great danger that they could now wish to be reinforced in Congress by votes from the excluded Southern States.

IMPEACHMENT PROSPECTS.—We do not believe the impeachment will be ordered. The prudent and well informed members of both Houses of Congress disapprove the scheme with great unanimity. They credit the labors of the New York Herald in its favor to the motives charged upon that journal with great unanimity by the business men of New York city identified with the Republicans—viz., to a desire to break down Republican party ascendency.—Washington Star.

1867. "THE WORLD" 1867.

THE ATTENTION OF THE PUBLIC IS INVITED to the claims of "THE WORLD" as one of the leading public journals of the country. It is the chief organ of the Democratic Party of the United States, and the foremost advocate of the immediate restoration of the Union. Its highest merit consists in its character as An enterprising and Trustworthy Newspaper.

The next year bids fair to be a more critical one in the history of our free institutions, than even any of the eventful ones that have preceded it. The first requisite for an intelligent judgment of public affairs is a full and authentic account of facts as they transpire. These THE WORLD always aims to give with conscientious accuracy, and with equal fullness and fidelity, whether they make for or against its own views of public policy. Prompt activity in spreading before its readers every kind of news in which any part of the public takes an interest, is the first duty of a newspaper, and the facilities of THE WORLD for discharging this obligation are unsurpassed by those of any journal in the United States. Whatever else it may fail in, it certainly will not fail to furnish the news, nor to supply it with such promptitude, spirit, freshness, abundance, variety, accuracy, and candor, that no class of readers can miss anything of interest which they wish to find. THE WORLD will publish documents and arguments prepared by political foes just as freely as those prepared by political friends; making its own comments on them, of course, but never suppressing or garbling them because they are calculated to damage its own party. Adverse arguments which it cannot refute, it is content to leave to make their full impression. THE WORLD adopts this rule because it believes no other is honest; because it conceives that its first duty to its readers is to keep them thoroughly informed on every passing subject of importance.

A PROPOSITION.

IN WHICH YOU ARE INTERESTED.

I PROPOSE for the protection of the citizens of Raleigh and surrounding country, against the imposition of those so-called Cost Stores, to furnish each and every person, the New York Cost of any goods they may want to buy; by this means they can tell whether they are buying goods at Cost or paying a profit on them.

Call before going to any of those Cost Stores so-called, and let me give you a memorandum of Cost prices.

Most of my large stock I will sell at cost but I have; goods that I will not sell in that way, and neither will those merchants who make such a flourish about selling at Cost.

No merchant in this place has purchased his Goods any cheaper than I bought mine. Any assertion to the contrary is false; and I will guarantee to sell Goods as low as any Cost House. All I ask is an opportunity to prove the truthfulness of this assertion.

THE PUBLISHERS, determined to exert all their energies, look with confidence to the new year for such an increase of patronage as will enable them to enlarge the usefulness of THE FARMER, and make it a still more desirable medium for advertisers.

SUBSCRIPTION.—The terms of subscription have been made so low and reasonable as to place it within the reach of all who may desire it; and in view of the great interests to be served by an extensive circulation, we confidently expect the hearty co-operations of many in those sections of the country not now supplied with a good Agricultural Journal.

TERMS OF SUBSCRIPTION:—For a single copy one year, $3,00

CLUB RATES:—Five copies one year for $13,00; ten copies one year for $25,00; fifteen copies one year for $37,00; twenty copies one year for $49,00; twenty-five copies one year for $60,00; and larger clubs in the same proportion.

To secure the advantages of these liberal terms, the clubs must be complete at the time of subscription, and the money accompany the order.

It is not required that all the subscribers to a club shall receive THE FARMER at one office. If necessary it will be mailed under the club arrangement to as many different offices as there are subscribers to the club.

THE SENTINEL.

WM. E. PELL, SEATON GALES, } Editors.

Friday Evening, Feb. 1, 1867.

What Do they Want?

We have steadfastly maintained that the people of North Carolina are loyal. Certainly, that portion of the citizens of the State, who obey the laws, pay their taxes and support the government and the Constitution, are unquestionably loyal. And those who come in this category, and have been pardoned and taken the oath of amnesty, are both technically and legally loyal, and no action of the Congress or any other branch of the government, can make them legally disloyal, so long as they observe the obligations of their oath and good citizenship. No Court in this country, can or would render judicially and correctly, a different decision.—This class embraces perhaps, four-fifths or more of our white population, to which must be added the few truly loyal persons, who have not yet been pardoned by the President.

Under our present government, no man is denied the rights and privileges of citizenship on account of his opinions—no man is curtailed in his civil or political rights—except that small number in the State who are unquestionably among our best citizens, who have not been pardoned by the President. So far as we can judge, laying aside all partizan or political feeling, these are the only citizens of the State, who have any personal ground of real complaint against the action of the government, either State or national. These have reason to complain, if for nothing else, that they are at least, the equals in any point of view, of their fellow-citizens, who have received Executive clemency. Yet we hear no complaint from them.

But there are complainants, who keep up a continual clamor, that justice is not done them. They claim that they are better than other people—that they are entitled to the special consideration of the National government—that the government, to gratify them and do them justice, ought to break up the existing State governments in the South—ought to disfranchise four-fifths of the most intelligent, enterprising, and best white citizens of the State—ought to confiscate their property and beggar their wives and children, and put them under the ban, and at the same time put them, the so called loyalists and the negroes, in control of the State government. Now why is this? Are they more loyal than other citizens? Are they better citizens? Are they more competent to govern? Do they enjoy more of the confidence of the people? Certainly not.

Who are these? They are not the quiet, consistent Union men during the war. Those men are opposed to their course. Select them out. We challenge investigation. We believe that for every one of the consistent, uniform Union men during the war, on their side, there can be shown five or ten, who entirely disapprove of their course.

Who are they? We do not doubt there are a few who can show a consistent Union record among the Loyalists, but mostly, they have been mouthing, wrangling persons before the war, during the war and since the war,—sometimes one thing and then another—now Confederate, then Union—now strong for the South and the war, then weak-kneed or disgruntled because not put forward, and hence Union-Many of them are deserters, bush-whackers, buffaloes, who for plunder became Union men, so called. Many of these, both white and black loyalists, are the men who are now robbing, burning and murdering. These are the men, who claim that they are the best citizens, the most loyal—for whom the Congress should interfere, territorialize the State, disfranchise four-fifths of the whites and enfranchise the blacks.

And what have they to complain of? When they are good, peaceable citizens, they are treated like other people. They have the same privileges, enjoy the same franchises, and are protected by the same laws. When they can command the votes of the people, they are elected to office like other men. No one persecutes them for opinion's sake, or for their Unionism, or for any thing else, but for the meanness, wickedness and lawlessness of those among them, who deserve censure or punishment. The good citizens among them, are treated just like other good citizens, and what can they ask more?

William T. Bain.

Few names are better and more favorably know in North Carolina, than that of WM. T. BAIN, Grand Secretary of the Grand Lodge of North Carolina. In the Lodges of the State, his name is a house-hold word, and his memory will be sweet.

This venerable servant of God and good citizen, after several years of weakness and disease, was gathered to his fathers, last night, at the residence of his son, Mr. D. W. Bain, in this city, full of years and ripe in grace.

He was one of our oldest citizens, being at the time of his death in the 74th year of his age. As a man and a citizen, he was universally beloved. Imitating in his spirit and behavior, the amiable, loving spirit of the beloved Apostle, St. John, he loved every one and in turn was beloved by all. As a christian, for many years, he exhibited the meekness and gentleness of Christ, and steadily maintained without flickering, that light "which shineth more and more to the perfect day." Few have lived better, and hence his end was peaceful and triumphant.

The Grand Lodge will hold a special session in honor of his memory and to participate in his burial, on to-morrow afternoon, as noticed elsewhere in these columns. The funeral services will commence at the Methodist Church, of which he had been a member for many years, at 2½ o'clock, to-morrow afternoon.

NORTH CAROLINA LEGISLATURE.

SENATE.

FRIDAY Morning, Feb. 1.

The Senate was called to order at 10½ o'clock.

Mr. Wilson presented a memorial from the Agricultural Society of the county of Mecklenburg, on the subject of foreign emigration, which was read, and on his motion it was ordered to be printed and referred to the committee on Propositions and Grievances.

The resignation of Mr. Q. Busbee, assistant clerk of the Senate was read from the clerk's desk.

On motion of Mr. Clark, the Senate proceeded to fill the vacancy. Mr. Chas. M. Busbee was nominated by Mr. Clark, and Mr. P. Foster by Mr. Jones, which resulted in the election of Mr. Busbee, by a vote of 41 to 3, Mr. Harris, of Rutherford, Snead and Thompson having voted for Mr. Foster.

On motion of Mr. Clark, a message was sent to the House informing them of the election of Mr. C. Busbee as assistant clerk of the Senate.

Mr. Hall presented a memorial from the magistrates of New Hanover county, asking additional fees. On his motion it was referred to the committee on Propositions and Greviences.

REPORTS OF COMMITTEES.

Mr. Cunningham, from the committee on Propositions and Grievances, to whom was referred a bill to change the jurisdiction of the Courts and the manner of pleading therein, reported back the same asking to be discharged from its further consideration. There being a large number of bills on the same subject now before the committee on the Judiciary and the whole subject being maturely considered by it, very important legal and constitutional questions are involved, and the committee on Propositions and Grievances believe that the committee on the Judiciary appointed with reference to such questions, is the proper one to consider them. They deem it highly expedient, that this Assembly should mature some safe plan for a stay in the collection of debts, and believe that a definite conclusion will be more easily reached, by having all the plans on the subject before one committee. The reference was made.

Mr. Wiggins, from the committee on Finance to whom was referred a bill providing for the payment of the interest on bonds of the State now due, recommending its passage. Also a resolution in favor of the Sheriff of Union county, recommending its passage. Also a bill authorizing the exchange of the bonds issued to the Western North Carolina Railroad Company, for new bonds, considered the same and reported a bill as a substitute.

Mr. Thompson, from the committee on Corporations reported back the bill to incoporate Kittrell Spring Female College, recommending its passage. Also a bill to incorporate the Pigeon River Mining and Manufacturing Company, recommending its passage.

Mr. Leach, from the committee on the Judiciary, to whom was referred a House bill to change the jurisdiction of the Courts and the rules of pleading therein, had considered the same, and proposed several amendments and recommended its passage, and on his motion it was made a special order at 11½ o'clock Tuesday next.

Mr. Hall, from the committee on Education, to whom was referred a bill to incorporate Waynesville Baptist College, recommended its passage.

BILLS.

Mr. Gash from the Committee on a Penitentiary, reported a bill for the construction of a Penitentiary in this State, as a substitute for the original bill on that subject, which had been misplaced; the bill was read and made the special order for Monday next at 12 o'clock.

On motion of Mr. Avery, the rules were suspended and the bill to incorporate the North Carolina Land and Emigration aid Company, submitted several amendments, and on his motion it was referred to the Committee on Corporations.

On motion of Mr. Jones of Wake the rules were suspended and the vote by which the bill relating to the Chatham Rail Road Company was tabled on yesterday, was reconsidered, and the bill was made a special order for Thursday next.

ON CALENDAR.

Bill making provision for working public roads came up on its second reading. [This bill exempts ministers and magistrates from working on the roads. Messrs. Speed and Wiggins opposed the bill. Messrs. Gash, and Ferebee supported it, and the bill passed its second reading, and on motion of Mr. Jones the rules were suspended and the bill was put on its third reading. Mr. Speed moved to amend by striking out the first section, thereby exempting ministers only. On this motion the Ayes and Nays were called and it was lost, and the bill passed its final reading.

Resolution in favor of the City of Raleigh relative to stock subscribed in the Chatham Road, came up, on motion of Mr. Jones, the rules were suspended and it passed its several readings.

On motion of Mr. Hall, the rules were suspended and the bill authorizing the City of Wilmington to fund her back debts was taken up, the merits of the bill discussed, and Mr. Wiggins offered an amendment which was adopted, and the bill passed its final reading.

Bill to amend the Constitution of North Carolina came up, with a substitute offered by a majority of the Committee on the Judiciary. The original bill authorizes justices of the peace to try petty offences and provides for the election of magistrates by the people. The substitute is opposed to clothing them with jurisdiction to try petty offences.

Messrs. Adams, Berry, Robins and Covington supported the original bill and Mr. Leach favored the substitute. Mr. Hall stated that he did not think it good policy owing to the present condition of the country to present constitutional questions to the people at this time, and, in order to cut off debate on the subject, moved to lay the whole matter on the table, which motion was lost. Pending its consideration, on motion of Mr. Ferebee, the Senate adjourned.

HOUSE OF COMMONS.

FRIDAY, February 1st 1867.

The House was called to order at 10½ o'clock.

Mr. Waugh, for the Committee on Propositions and Grievances, reported back adversely several bills for the relief of Sheriffs, and asked that the committee be discharged from further consideration of a memorial from the citizens of Davidson county praying a modification of the Stay Law &c.

Mr. Davis, from the Judiciary Committee reported back the bill to abolish the office of State Geologist," recommending that it do not pass.

Mr. Patton, for the Committee on Internal Improvements, reported a substitute for the bill to amend the charter of the Western N. C. Railroad.

Mr. Harper for the Finance Committee, reported back the bill to revise and consolidate the various acts relating to the collection and return of taxes for the support of the Indigent Insane recommending its passage.

On motion of Mr. Harper, the rules were suspended, and the bill passed its 2nd and 3rd readings.

Mr. Richardson, from the Judiciary Committee reported "a bill to amend sections 1 and 3, chapter 10, of the Revised Code, entitled "Auctions and Auctioneers."

Mr. McKay for the same committee, reported a bill to enable Guardians and others to adjust their accounts."

BILLS AND RESOLUTIONS.

By Mr. Ashworth; a resolution requesting the Judiciary Committee to declare (by bill or otherwise) the meaning of sec. 51. chapt. 46. and sec. 18. chapt. 118. Revised Code.

By Mr. Granberry, a resolution that the House hold Evening sessions from and after to day. (Lies over under rule.)

By Mr. Bradsher, a joint resolution that the General Assembly adjourn sine die on the 11th of February inst. Laid on the table, on motion of Mr. Waugh.

By Mr. McRae, a resolution in favor of Walter L. Steele, of Richmond county.

By Mr. Baker, a resolution in favor of S. W. Chamberlain, of Edgecome county.

By Mr. Boyd, a bill to repeal an ordinance prohibiting the sale of spiritous liquors within one and a half miles of the town of Company's shops. (This bill was accompanied by a memorial and a counter-memorial which were referred with it.)

A message was received from the Senate announcing the election of Chas. M. Busbee, of Wake, as Assistant Clerk of that body vice Quentin Busbee resigned.

UNFINISHED BUSINESS.

The House resumed consideration of the bill to raise Revenue, on its second reading.

Amendments were adopted having the effect to exempt from taxation farming utensils and stock not exceeding $200 in value, unless they be for sale.

Household and kitchen furniture, books, pictures, &c., were exempt from taxation.

One of them, offered by Mr. Richardson, proposed to strike out in Section 3, class 2, of Schedule C, the words "worn by males." This amendment proposed, in effect, to tax jewelry belonging to females.

Mr. Dargan opposed the amendment on high Constitutional ground. It proposed taxation without representation. He was not an advocate of "Woman's Rights," as interpreted by Anna Dickinson, Lucy Stone and other strong-minded females, but the ladies of North Carolina had not asked the right to vote, and he was unwilling to tax their ornaments. He objected to the amendment on the score of decency. He deemed it highly indecorous and improper to be sending big flat-footed Sheriffs into ladies bourdoirs to pry into their boxes and count their trinkets. These remarks elicted much laughter and the amendment received its quietus.

An amendment offered by Mr. Stone to sec. 14f schedule B, proposing to strike out the words "for his own use," was also rejected.

The object of this amendment was to exempt from taxation spirituous liquors distilled for one's own use. The bill passed its second reading.

A bill for the relief of Wm. H. Perkins, tax collector of Pitt county, passed its second and third readings under a suspension of the rules.

Engrossed bills "to provide for the building a Fence in Perquimans county," and "to extend the time for the return to the county Courts of the lands to be sold for taxes," and "a resolution providing for protecting and marking the graves of North Carolina Soldiers in Oakwood Cemetery, Virginia," had their first reading.

On motion of Mr. Dargan the rules were suspended as to the last named resolution and it passed its several readings. (Appropriates $1,000 for the purposes indicated.)

The House then adjourned.

REMARKS OF

MR. RICHARDSON, OF BLADEN,

On Yesterday, on the motion to refer Mr. Latham's bill for the relief of the People, to an appropriate Committee.

Mr. Richardson said:—That he had so frequently heretofore had the indulgence of the House, that he felt almost ashamed again to venture to address it, but he felt it due to himself, as a sincere advocate of relief, and to his constituents and the people of the State at large who required it, (particularly inasmuch as upon a question of privilege he deemed is necessary,) that he should again speak. He was an advocate of relief,—had advocated it at home in the canvass, had promised his constituents to give them, as far as lay in his power, all the constitutional protection which might be afforded them. He had not been recreant to the trust; he had invariably, unwaveringly, constantly sought so to do, and he intended not to relax, in one jot or title, from the full, faithful and final discharge of what he considered to be his duty to the entire people of the State. They had, previously to the convening of this Legislature, demanded some stay, of a substantial character, of the debts which the misfortunes of war had rendered them unable to pay at once, and since we had assembled this demand had come up, and was daily coming up, from every portion of the State. He had heeded it, he intended to heed it, and if it became necessary, in order to relieve the people of North Carolina from the ruinous consequences incident to the speedy collection of their old debts, to abolish the civil jurisdiction of the Courts, he, for one, was prepared to do so. Yea, even though, as a member of the legal profession whereby he made his living, he deprived his children of their daily bread, and thereby, for the future, brought upon himself the curse of the fall, "In the sweat of thy face shalt thou eat bread all the days of thy life."

But he was not, at this stage of the bill, prepared to vote upon it. He asked time to consider it, and for this purpose—that we might vote understandingly,—he should vote to refer the bill to the Judiciary Committee. He wished to be understood in so voting. He had read, in the Standard, of yesterday, an anonymous article intended, it occurred to him, to lay at the door of the Judiciary Committee, and to the lawyers of this body who composed the same, the entire blame or fault in not having prepared or completed some measure for the relief of the people; and the course of this discussion plainly showed that it was believed by some of this body, that this motion to refer the bill under consideration to that Committee, was done with the intention thereby to defeat it. Such was not the case. Gentlemen are not charitable. Let those who are not lawyers, remember that if they, in ignorance of the Constitution, chance to violate it by their votes, public charity will excuse them, and it may be said, "Excuse them, for they know not what they do." Not so with us. We are presumed to know the law, and should we vote in violation of the sacred oath which, as members we took "to support the Constitution of the State of North Carolina, not inconsistent with the Constitution of the United States," we will be tried and convicted, upon this presumption, by the great moral sentiment of society.

The friends of the bill need not fear this reference. He was satisfied that there was not a member of the committee who would not quickly yield every consideration of personal interest to subserve the wants of the people of North Carolina, if, in so doing, they violated no duty nor compromised no feeling of honor and morality.

Why should gentlemen fear this test. They wish to give relief,—he wished to give relief, but he desired to give them more than an insubstantial pageant, which might dissolve before the Constitution and leave not a wreck behind. He loved the people of his State.—When they cried out to him for something to give them hope and encouragement, he wished to give that something, but when he should give a fish, he would not trifle with their situation by offering a stone. He was not declaiming for the ear of "Buncombe." He needed no such aids. He never expected to come before his people again for legislative honors, but he intended to discharge his duty towards them, nevertheless, and when they greet him upon his return, as he believed they would, with the plaudit of "well done good and faithful servant," whether he should ask them to extend to him the promise extended in the remaining portion of the parable or not, he will have the proud satisfaction to know that he has at least attempted to discharge his duties towards them.

For the Sentinel.

MESSRS. EDITORS.—A marked and decided improvement in the editorials of your cotemporary of the Standard, has been noticed by our heretofore much abused and insulted citizens, with great satisfaction. Heaven knows they are bad enough yet in other respects; but they have ceased to belabor and malign the characters of our most cherished citizens with that bitterness and cruel injustice which have excited such deep and universal disgust. The overwhelming indignation that was poured upon the political course of the Senior Editor, furnished no excuse for his personal vituperation. That reproaches and execrations should pursue a native North Carolinian, who seemed to have turned his back upon his own people, and to indulge a diabolical pleasure in invoking vengeance upon their bowed and naked heads, from a Government in which they had no share, except in its exactions, was to be expected. When his own political history was disentombed, and inconsistencies such as mortal man never heard of before, were spread before the public, if the subject of this strange history had doubled and dodged like the timid hare, to escape his pursuers, we might have admired his ingenuity, and perhaps pitied his weakness. Had he bravely stood at bay like the lion, and defied the hunters, we might have been awed into silence, at least, by his intrepidity. But when he neither doubled nor stood at bay, but defended himself in the manner of a foul animal, which needs not to be named, by the loathsomeness with which it taints the atmosphere around it, and hopes to escape by disgusting those whom it could neither weary nor subdue, he must have expected to be treated in the only safe and practical way of encountering the hostility of that species of animated nature. It happened as was to be expected. The press and the people, with the exception of a few unmistakables, have, with one consent, adroitly placed themselves at a respectful distance on the windward side, and poured vollies and broadsides without much mercy into the bush where he was half concealed. We have had our sport, such as it is. Often our olfactories have been saluted by other gales than those of Araby the Blest.—Odors not of ripe peaches have sometimes brought us to a halt, or a change of position. There was ever and anon a smell somewhat ancient and fish-like, sometimes even worse than that. But, Messrs. Editors has there not been about enough of this? Has not the good-natured, long enduring public, become at last a little tired of them? Has there not been sufficient ammunition wasted already? Cui Bono, to keep up the firing when the object seems to have ceased his warring on the spotless fame of our greatest and best? Or, in the language of animated nature, since the zoological specimen aforesaid has left the bush and crawled into his hole, should he not be allowed to stay there quietly and luxuriate at the end of his burrow, bathed in his own perfumes, spending his elegant leisure in softening the stings of an unquiet conscience as best he may? Let him indulge in his Radical ravings, without let or hindrance. They deceive no one at home.—Abroad they are laughed to scorn. Even the unsophisticated negroes among us cannot be fooled. They know his object and aim, and only use him at present to accomplish a purpose, when he is deluded by the belief that he is using them to accomplish his. Let him rave on in peace, let his tongue wag, and his pen too, so long as he avoids offensive aspersions on the good names of men so much better, and of patriots so infinitely purer than himself. They have already done all the harm they can. Should he creep out of his hole again, and renew his old offensive practices, why then let slip the dogs of war, but until then; why not let him rest in the shade, "unwept, unhonored and unsung"? (Qu. unhung?)

X.

POSTSCRIPT.—The above was written for your paper, Messrs. Editors, a week ago, when the writer with others was rejoicing in the fact, that two or three numbers of the Standard had appeared that were comparatively decent in their spirit and tone. The people hailed the improvement with unaffected delight, and hoped we were to have a young millenium.—But "ye animal" has come out again, and smells if possible worse than ever. He seems in his temporary retirement to have concocted a new supply of odoriferous compounds, and laid in a stock of villainous smells, more offensive than even before, which he scatters fore and aft with merciless energy on the innocent air. What has Gov. Vance done to "ye animal" to provoke him so? Only beaten him once for Governor by 35,000 votes. Can that never be forgiven—nor forgotten? And what is the unpardonable sin of our modest, and staid, and Quaker-like Jonathan? He only beat him some seven or eight thousand, and might have hoped for a little mercy by this time. And what has your venerable Senior done, whose character is too well known to be written up—or written down by anybody, to provoke such foaming wrath? Why, forsooth, he has the public printing, for which ye animal's mouth watered—and which he had enjoyed so long that he seems to think it belonged to him by birthright or at least a perpetual lease. He is not satisfied with the whole net full of fish furnished by the Federal government—but he must forsooth, cram into his insatiable maw the two small fishes, upon which the semi-military, semi-territorial, and semi-civil government of North Carolina allows "Bro. Pell" to nibble, by way of greasing the few Yankee crackers he may be able to purchase from the attenuated nett profits of a daily print. The abdominal capacity of "ye animal" is admitted to be immense, awful; but is there to be no limit? Does the whole world belong to him, and the ocean too? Does he consider himself a veritable whale? and is he so desperately bent on sucking in these two small fishes that he cannot live without them?

It is a cunning animal. It works well for its masters. It cares little for the contempt that overwhelms it, throughout this poor little Territory. It has a mania elsewhere—not in the skies—allelujah! It scoffs at this pent-up Utica. It has in its eye a "noble old Roman"—and a "glorious old patriot,"—precious examples! "Some people there be"—(and such people!) "who achieve greatness" (and such greatness!) Caliban was once a Governor—so called, and when he was beaten, abjectly kissed the foot of a drunken sailor who had given him brandy, and other comforts, and promised him honors! and worshipped him! and rolled at his feet! and called him—a god!

That paper is not meant for this market.—Ye animal that perfumes it three times a week does not design it for our olfactories. It is incense offered to "noble old Romans" elsewhere—and if they do not turn up their "old Roman" noses with scorn at the mean servility displayed by the worshipper, they are greatly belied. Does "ye animal" remember an audience asked of a certain Republican member of Congress from Pennsylvania named Kelly—and what Mr. Kelly said to the "Southern Loyalists," so called?

Our beloved Ex. P. G. must forgive us for poking a little fun at him, now while it is safe. These may seem to him rather grim jokes, but from them he may learn a valuable lesson. He may learn what the people really think of him. When he becomes Governor again, backed by those ten thousand bayonets, he may be treated with all becoming respect. It will be due to the office; though he will probably consider it fawning—as he did before. But whatever outward respect may be shown him let him be assured that the amount really felt will be precisely that which is now expressed.

"Dum vivimus vivamus."

GENERAL EARLY'S BOOK.—We have received from General Early, now in Toronto, the corrected proof sheets of the history of his campaign, which he desires us specially to publish for the benefit of the Memorial Associations, under whose auspices we have agreed to undertake the work. All the profits derived from the sale of the work, after paying the bare cost of publication, will be appropriated sacredly to the object of marking the graves of our soldiers, who fell on the fields where they now lie in Virginia.

The edition will be a cheap one—the retail cost of the book not to exceed one dollar. The better to subserve the laudable object which the General has in view, he has determined to withhold from circulation the remaining copies published at his own expense in Canada, for distribution amongst his friends, until this edition shall be published and disposed of.

We trust that all the newspapers of the State, and of the South, friendly to this object, will publish the substance of this notice and invite orders for the work at once.

Letters upon the subject should be addressed to the Virginian office, Lynchburg, or to Mrs. E. H. Brown, for the Memorial Association of Virginia, box 425, Richmond. The book will be ready early in March.—Lynchburg Virginian.

Rejection of the Constitutional Amendment.

NEW ORLEANS, Jan. 29.—The Mississippi Legislature, after General Alcorn had addressed it in favor of the constitutional amendment, as the least of the Congressional evils, rejected it unanimously.

The Lynchburg Republican learns that 8,600 bales of cotton have passed over the air-line railroad through that city to Norfolk within the past month.

It said that some $30,000 worth of whiskey is now in Fredericksburg awaiting the opening of navigation to be sent forward. A good deal has been sent off by express since the the freeze.

The University of Va. is still encumbered with a debt, which may be sent down, in round numbers, at $40,000. Apart from this indebtedness, the future of the University wears a cheerful aspect.

A FEW WORDS TO MY FRIENDS AND CUSTOMERS.

I advertised in the early part of the season that I would sell goods as cheap, as Yankee, Jew or Gentile, Cost Houses not excepted—as cheap as he who had paid for his goods, or ever intended to pay for them. And I here take the privilege to say, that I think my customers will bear me out when I say, I have done so in almost every instance.

I told the people to "come to Creech's," to buy their goods—they have come, and they are still coming—and I think they will pardon me when I say they have shown their good judgment.

I now tell them to "come to Creech's" to buy their goods.

I don't advertise my goods at New York Cost—I intend to represent my goods to you in a fair and equitable way, and sell them fully as cheap as any so-called Cost House. And I here say to the so-called cost gentlemen, if they paid what they charge their customers for goods, I advise them to go back to the License man and surrender their license. Go back to your Land-lords and ask them to take back your houses,—and proclaim to the world that you have missed your calling, and are not fit for merchants.

I compromised my debts that I owed North before the war, by paying them at one hundred cents in the dollar.

Let them start their opposition—let them all talk. But "come to Creech's," to buy your goods. You will find me at R. Smith's corner, ready and willing at all times to serve you right.

LOCAL DEPARTMENT.

NORTH CAROLINA MEDICINES.—R. B. Saunders, Esq., of Chapel Hill, a most experienced practical Chemist, offers valuable medicines of his own make to cure disease. See advertisements headed "American Bitters" and "Saunders Cathartic and Alterative Pills." They are for sale at Williams and Haywood's. Mr. Saunders' medicines have been fully tested, and he is known to be an excellent chemist and a reliable gentleman.

OTHER ADVERTISEMENTS.—An office to rent, very desirable.

Fine baled Hay by Pulliam, Jones & Co.

Mules stolen from Col. Watson. See reward offered.

DON'T FORGET.—The Exchange Hotel in the City of Raleigh, will be sold on next Wednesday, the 6th of Feburary, and also at the same time and place, the Macon House, at Morehead City before the door of the Exchange Hotel, at 12 o'clock. Terms ¼ cash or negotiable paper, and the balance 6, 12, 18 and 24 months, if desired. Papers publishing the advertisement will please notice and send paper containing it and bill, to W. H. Cuninggim, Raleigh.

LITERARY BOARD.—This Board held a meeting to-day in the Executive office; present, the Governor President ex officio, and Messrs. Husted and Wiley.

THE INDICATOR.—The third No. of this paper some friend has sent us. It is a neat weekly, published at Warrenton, by Messrs. Williams & Jones, at $3 per year, and is devoted to Literature, Religion, Agriculture and General Intelligence, and is edited by Rev. T. B. Kingsbury, who is already favorably known to the reading public, as the founder and the accomplished editor of the Oxford "Leisure Hour.

GREAT DISCOVERY.—A well has been discovered near Charlotte, whose waters are said by the best medical authority, to be a certain cure for disease of a particular kind. The owner Mr. Cross will sell the property and it is said to be an excellent chance for investment. See advertisement, headed "an invaluable discovery."

W. H. HUGHES.—Our cotemporary the Henderson Index, begs a suspension of the judgment of the public in the case of Mr. W. H. Hughes, until it can lay the facts before them.

FOXES.—The Lynchburg News says, that the foxes were never more numerous in that region, than now. Their depredations are becoming serious, and it advises a general slaughter. Alas! the whole country is infested with foxes of all hues and kinds and characters. Four-legged, two-legged and one-legged—one-eyed, squint-eyed and cock-eyed—white-livered, hard-hearted and black-hearted. Let the hounds be turned loose upon them.

A SCAMP.—A fellow representing himself as a consistent member of the Baptist Church, who has been imposing himself on the good people of Petersburg for some days, is published by Rev. Mr. Pritchard as an unworthy man, and he advises the public to beware of him. He calls himself Saclair.

DEATH OF AN EMINENT AND BENEVOLENT LADY.—Mrs. Emily Mactavish, the daughter of Richard Canton, and granddaughter of Charles Carroll of Carrollton, one of the signers of the Declaration of Independence, died on Saturday at her residence in Baltimore, at the advanced age of seventy-four years. Mrs. Mactavish was the sister of the late Marchioness of Wellesley, of Lady Stafford, and the Duchess of Leeds, the last named surviving her. Her husband, the late John Mactavish, Esq., was for many years British Consul at Baltimore. The deceased lady was remarkable for her munificent and unostentatious liberality, having, besides endowing several charitable institutions, taken care of a large number of the poor, who were her regular pensioners.

Late Helena, Arkansas, newspapers say that the Mississippi made an other serious encroachment upon the limits of that town on Saturday, the 19th inst. The bank opposite the Exchange Hotel slid into the river, taking with it a portion of Main street, and endangering the foundations of the hotel and several stores so that will have to be torn down and rebuilt further back. It is feared that a large number of the business houses located in that vicinity will have to be vacated at an early day.

IT is officially reported that the freedmen throughout Florida are renewing contracts. Large numbers are entering lands. There was a large emigration from South Carolina and Georgia for the purpose of obtaining work or colonizing on the St. John's River, or south thereof.

A SENSATION SPOILED.—A few days ago the Louisville Journal had a detailed accounts of a bloody feud of twenty years' standing between two families in Carter county, Tennessee, which resulted on the 5th instant, in the killing of the last two survivors of both families. The Jonesboro' Flag pronounces the whole story an entire fabrication.

A VERY SUCCESSFUL BOOK.—A New York correspondent says:

"The Prison Life of Jefferson Davis has sold up to the forty fifth edition; and is still well. This book has been one of the most profitable to author and publisher ever issued from the American press. Dr. Craven's net receipts from it in this country and Europe are said to be close on $20,000."

AMONG the on dits about the Capitol is one that Senator Nesmith, of Oregon, is to be appointed Commissioner of Indian Affairs. If this be true, and the Senator would accept, no better appointment could be made. The country is indebted to him for a splendid expose of the fraud and corruption carried on under the Indian system of late.

Congress.

WASHINGTON, Jan. 31.

HOUSE.—The Consular and Diplomatic appropriation bill was taken up. Harvey at Portugal gets no salary. The appropriation for the Minister at Rome was erased, and the bill passed.

The Secretary of State was asked whether the bill to repeal the thirteenth section of the district suffrage etc., were on file in his office. It was stated in debate that this is the first instance of neglect to return bills with or without approval.

The bill transferring Indian affairs to the war department was taken up. An amendment allowing Indians the same rights and privileges allowed to negroes was rejected, and the bill was adopted by a vote of 76 to 73.

In the Senate, the President was called on for the correspondence between Secretary Seward, and foreign ministers relative to the policy toward the lately rebellious States.

The Committee on Claims was directed to enquire into the expediency of paying East Tennessee loyalists, the war losses recommended by General Burnside's commission.

The Ways and Means Committee have agreed to abolish the tax on newspaper advertisements.

Washington Matters.

WASHINGTON, Jan. 31.

Gen. Gilliam's Mississippi Bureau report, for December, says the demand for labor induces negro immigration. The wages are ten and fifteen dollars per month, with rations, quarters and medicines. The prohibition of fire arms, and owning real estate are fruitful sources of dissatisfaction to the freedmen.

Detective General L. C. Baker is in the City, It is understood that he is to testify for the impeachment regarding the case of Mrs. Cobb.

The Reconstruction Committee are maturing a bill, it is understood, containing a proviso, rendering the recognition of the Southern States as States, by the Supreme Court, nugatory, until the States are reconstructed.

OBJECTION 1.

I'M TOO POOR; I CAN'T AFFORD IT.

ANSWER.

If you are too poor to save less than half a dollar per week, at from 30 to 35 years of age, or proportionately at other ages, and find it so difficult to do so—should you be taken away by death, how bitterly poverty will strike home to your widow and children, or those dependent on you! Is it not worth a struggle to avoid this, and give them at least $1,000 by paying so small a sum? It costs just $2,00 per month to insure $1,000 at the age of 32 years.

OBJECTION 2.

I've talked to several of my friends, and they all advise me to have nothing to do with it.

ANSWER.

Will your friends undertake to provide for those you leave behind, in case you do not live long enough to save money? Ask them, and be guided by their answer.

OBJECTION 3.

I can't make up my mind; call again.

ANSWER.

Your other objections have been answered. I appeal to your own common sense to answer this for yourself, aided by

THREE PRACTICAL REFLECTIONS.

FIRST.—Nothing is so uncertain as Life.
SECOND.—No provision is perfect that is contingent upon the duration of your Life, which is not immediate.
THIRD.—The only immediate provision is that provided by Life Insurance.

NEW ADVERTISEMENTS.

AN INVALUABLE DISCOVERY,
BY WHICH
Water can be Turned into Money.

Truly has it been said, "That the riches of this world, lie buried in the bowels of the earth." The precious metals that are daily taken from thence, readily procure all the luxuries and comforts—save, the great boon to the sick, Health—without which, life is a burden, and the millions of the Rothchilds' would fail to secure.

To females suffering from Leucorrhea, (or Whites, as it is commonly called,) I, as a Physician of many years experience, would say, that you need not longer endure a miserable life of pains, aches and general debility, or weakness, the consequence of this deplorable disease.

All Physicians, of modern teaching, will admit the great difficulties in arresting this destroyer of health, for various reasons unnecessary to mention. Patients suffering therefrom will as readily agree, that medicines, however carefully prepared and used fail, in most instances, to afford relief; and in many, from long continuance, produce debility, thereby increasing the malady they were expected to relieve.

Deeming it a great privilege to be a public benefactor, and add to the comforts of the afflicted, by placing before them means of relief, I here give the history of a few cases of great interest that have fallen under my professional care.

Mrs. ———, a lady of the highest standing in the city of Charlotte, N. C., had been an incessant sufferer from Leucorrhœa for three years. Her cheeks were blanched, her skin always cold and almost transparent—in fact she seemed not to have a red corpuscle in her body. So weak was she, that it was with great difficulty she could ascend a flight of stairs, without feeling faint and exhausted. Palpitation of the heart, head-ache, and a dizziness in the head, besides excruciating pains in the back, together with a bearing-down sensation in the region of the womb, were constant and alarming. Notwithstanding they were but symptoms of extreme debility, induced or kept up by the never ceasing drain from her system. In this condition, every means at my command was used for her relief. Remedy after remedy was tried. Every means recommended by our modern authors proved worthless in her case. Hearing of the case of a servant, whom I had formerly treated, (belonging to Mr. Cross,) having been very much benefitted by this mineral water, I resolved, (without further inquiry,) as the last resort, to recommend to her its use. Anxious to be restored once more to health, she readily acceded to my proposition, and visited this well daily. Soon improvement was visible, and in the short space of three months her health was entirely restored. A living monument to the great curative virtues of this water.

The next case of great interest is that of the servant woman already spoken of. Seven years previous to the discovery of this well, Mr. Cross engaged my services in the care of this woman. I made most careful examination and searched out all of the particulars of her history. She had suffered for 18 years with Leucorrhœa, and being sorely afflicted therefrom, it was universally known in our community, that she was the martyr of the town. I found her with all of the distressing symptoms attending this malady, and could only afford her temporary relief. Time passed on, and still her afflictions did not abate. She abandoned all hope of recovery, and resolved to take no medicines, but to resign herself to the fate which seemed to await her. Her master just then having discovered this well, advised that she should drink freely of the water, as it might be of some benefit to her. Like a drowning man catching at straw, she tried it, and improvement was soon perceptible. Perseverance was crowned with success, and this day she is a strong and healthy woman, and can be seen at the residence of her former master, and will take great pleasure in relating, in detail, to any visitors, the history of her case.

Many other cases known to us, of equal interest, have been cured, and others are being daily benefitted.

It is to be regretted that the pecuniary embarrassments incident to the late war precludes the idea, of Mr. Cross' fitting up this valuable property, as a resort for invalids. Under these circumstances, the owner (Mr. George Cross, of Charlotte, N. C.,) is willing to dispose of his property at the very reasonable price of $16,000 in U. S. currency, and will communicate with any one either by letter or personally.

The plantation of 100 acres of fine and productive land is situated within one and a half miles of the city of Charlotte, N. C., immediately on the Wilmington, Charlotte and Rutherford Railroad. A fine residence, with modern improvements and conveniences, together with all necessary buildings attached, have just been completed, and to capitalists seeking investments no finer inducements could be offered.

THE AMERICAN BITTERS.

The Great Southern Tonic,

AND THE MOST PALATABLE STOMACHIC EVER USED,

FOR THE CURE OF DYSPEPSIA, DISORDERED Digestion, Flatulency, Sluggish Circulation of the Blood, Bilious Complaints arising from a morbid condition of the Stomach and Bowels. An Elegant Tonic in debilitated states of the Digestive Organs, or of the system generally. For the loss of appetite it is the most wholesome and effectual Tonic in the world. It strengthens nature and enables the system to triumph over disease. In wakefulness attended with tremors and general nervous derangement, it is peculiarly adapted, giving strength and tone to the nerves. To delicate Ladies and Children it is invaluable—and in fact whenever a pleasant and agreeable Tonic is wanted, this should be used.

Dr. Johnston B. Jones, one of the most scientific and well known Physicians in the Southern States, testifies to its great value, besides many others who have been greatly benefited by the use of these Bitters,

FERTILIZERS FOR SPRING CROPS.

WE beg to inform the trade and planters of North Carolina and Virginia, that we are prepared to furnish them with the most approved FERTILIZERS, on the most accommodating terms. We will have a stock of genuine PERUVIAN GUANO, purchased direct from the Agent of the Peruvian Government.

We have now in store, for immediate delivery, 325 tons BRADLEY'S SUPER PHOSPHATE OF LIME, which won for itself such an enviable reputation in the Cotton and Tobacco counties of North Carolina and Virginia, last season, proving itself equal, and in many important respects, superior to the Peruvian Guano. We give an analysis of it as ascertained by Dr. Hayes, one of the most eminent Chemists in the country:

Results of Analyses Made of Bradley's Patent Super-Phosphate of Lime, as now sold by Wm. L. Bradley.

100 PARTS CONSIST OF
Moisture	5.30
Prepared animal matter, salts of Ammonia, fatty substances and Humus	38.50
Bone Phosphates of Lime, Magnesia and Iron	36.80
(Soluble Phosphates of do. 16 6-10.)
Sulphate of Lime	16.50
Salts	20
Insoluble	2.60
	99.90

The animal matter afforded 4 2-10 parts of Ammonia when it was decomposed, and, as will be seen, nearly one-half of the Bone Phosphate is soluble.

After many analyses of your Super-Phosphate of Lime, made during the last few months, I have found your standard of quality full equal to that of any you have ever sold in former years; and I am satisfied that you include the correct principles in the manufacture. Respectfully,

A. A. HAYES, M. D., State Assayer.

NEW AND ATTRACTIVE CANTATA.

A Winter Evening's Entertainment.

A SOCIAL CANTATA,

IN TWO PARTS.

Words by SIDNEY DYER.

Music by C. A. CULL.

This Cantata introduces the hearty pleasures which render enjoyable the long evenings of our Northern winters. Among these are a "Quilting Bee," a "Snow Balling" scene, "Hide and Seek," Love Scenes, Comic Scenes, and other attractive features. The Cantata can be sung without action or scenery, but if the latter is desired a little ingenuity will supply it, directions for which are given. It is easily "brought out," and cannot fail to afford satisfaction and amusement wherever produced. Price, Cloth, $1.25; Paper, $1.00, on receipt of which it will be sent post paid.

PERUVIAN GUANO SUBSTITUTE!

BAUGH'S

RAW BONE: SUPER-PHOSPHATE OF LIME.

TRADE MARK

Manufactured under the formula originated in 1854 and patented by

BAUGH & SONS,

SOLE PROPRIETORS, AT THE
Delaware River Chemical Works,
PHILADELPHIA, U. S. A.

This old established MANURE is manufactured from Bones that have not been burned or steamed, and it contains all their original organic matter. It is active in its operation, and is a fertilizer of great durability. It does not exhaust the soil like Peruvian Guano, but on the contrary permanently improves it.

Previous to 1861 it was introduced into the Southern States to considerable extent, and again in 1865, where it has been used with remarkable success upon Cotton, Corn, Tobacco, and all Crops.

A trial will convince any planter of its merits.—Pamphlets containing well-known Southern evidence furnished upon application to New York or Philadelphia offices.

☞ Sold by Dealers in all the principal cities and towns throughout the United States and British Provinces.

AYER'S AGUE CURE,

For the speedy and certain Cure of Intermittent Fever, or Chills and Fever, Remittent Fever, Chill Fever, Dumb Ague, Periodical Headache or Bilious Headache, and Bilious Fevers; indeed, for the whole class of diseases originating in biliary derangement, caused by the malaria of miasmatic countries.

This remedy has rarely failed to cure the severest cases of Chills and Fever, and it has this great advantage over other Ague medicines, that it subdues the complaint without injury to the patient. It contains no quinine or other deleterious substance, nor does it produce quinism or any injurious effect whatever. Shaking brothers of the army and the west, try it and you will endorse these assertions.

Prepared by J. C. AYER & CO., Lowell, Mass., and sold by Williams & Haywood, P. F. Pescud, Raleigh, N. C., and Dealers generally.

IMPORTANT SALE.

I WILL SELL AT PUBLIC AUCTION IN THE Town of Henderson, on Tuesday the 12th. February next, valuable situated within one mile of the Town of Henderson, on a never failing stream of water, which affords sufficient power to attach a Cotton Factory, if purchaser should so desire. These Mills are new, and in excellent working order; they having been built last year. Have been in successful operation for the past five months, during which time the Saw Mill alone has yielded an income of about five thousand dollars.

Manufacturing and Saw Mills;

I will sell with Mill, one hundred and fifty acres of heavy timbered land, said timber of superior quality. Also the timber off of two hundred and fifty acres of land, all of which is adjoining the Mill property.

Will be sold at the same time, two good yoke of Oxen, one Log Cart, a splendid pair of Mules, one two-horse Wagon and Harness, a superior lot of Hogs, of improved stock, and many other articles too numerous to mention, including one sett Blacksmith tools.

Also, at the same time and place, two very valuable situated in the Town of Henderson.

Houses and Lots,

I feel no hesitancy in pronouncing the above property, as valuable as any of the kind in the State. Capitalists desirous of investing in property that will pay, can do no better than examine this property and buy.

Terms made known on day of sale.

LIFE INSURANCE.

MANY insure their lives because they see the folly of neglecting to do so. Many who do not insure argue that it is folly to insure. Which is right? If those who do not insure can cite instances of the harm done by a policy of life Insurance, if they can point out men who have lost $5,000 to $100,000 by Life Insurance, then upon proof of same, we must believe them. Hundreds of instances can readily be shown where parties have been benefitted to this extent.—In North Carolina there are some Widows and Children ready to testify to the good resulting from a life Insurance on their only earthly dependence.

The "Ætna Life Co., in loosing $23,000 the past year has relieved want—and now with over $4,000,000 of assets—offers sure protection to all those who will avail themselves of her liberal terms, by calling on

THE BANK OF WASHINGTON,

In the Town of Washington, North Carolina.

TO ALL ITS CREDITORS,

WHEREAS, the said bank has resolved to appropriate all the estate and to close its business and surrender its chartered rights and franchises, in conformity to the provisions of an act of the General Assembly of the State, entitled "an act to enable the banks of this State to close their business," ratified the 12th. day of March, A. D. 1866.

And the said bank has filed its bill of complaint in the Court of Equity, held for the county of Beaufort, on the eighth Monday after the fourth Monday of September A. D. 1866, at the said town of Washington, against the creditors of the said bank, for the purposes and objects aforesaid.

And the said Court has, upon the hearing of said bill and consideration thereof, ordered that JOHN G. BLOUNT be, an dhe is by the decree of said Court, appointed, Commissioner or Receiver of all the real and personal estate of the said bank, and that there be vested in him, also, all the rights of action which the said bank had or has, including all debts due to said bank or to any person for its use and all liens and securities therefor, and in all things to be vested with the same power and authority which the said bank now has or had, at the time of the filing of their said bill; and the said John G. Blount has executed a bond in the required sum conditioned for his fulfilling the duties and trusts enjoined and reposed in him, and has entered on his duties, as such commissioner, to-wit: at the bank building, owned by said bank, in the said town of Washington aforesaid.

And the said Court has also ordered and decreed that the Clerk and Master of said Court advertise in the several newspapers, as mentioned in said act of Assembly, notifying all the creditors of said bank of the filing of this bill, and that they prefer and establish their several claims and demands against the said bank before the said commissioner, within twelve months from the time of this decree, and that they apply for and take benefit under the said act and plead and defend in all matters concerning their interests in the same.

Witness, MATTHEW SHAW, Clerk and Master of said Court, at office in Washington, in the County of Beaufort and State aforesaid, this the 10th. day of December A. D. 1866.

HILLSBORO' MILITARY ACADEMY.

THIS well known and popular Institution is once more in successful operation, and is prepared for the reception of Cadets at any time.—It is under thedirection of a graduate, and for fifteen years, (up to the commencement of the war) a

Professor of the Virginia

MILITARY INSTITUTE, and a colleague of

STONEWALL JACKSON.

The course of the Institution is that of the Virginia Military Institute, and is such as to make the Academy a great

POLYTECHNIC SCHOOL.

A school of theoretical and applied science, in which Languages and Literature also receive a due share of attention. The discipline and instructions are on a Complete Military Basis.

The Faculty is for the present organized as follows:

Superintendent and Professor of Military History, Strategy and Political Economy, and instructor of Infantry and Cavalry tactics, GEN. R. E. COLSTON, late Professor of French, and of Military History, Strategy and Political Economy at the Virginia Military Institute, and late Brig. General C. S. A.

Until the appointment of additional Professors, Gen. Colston takes charge of the Department of French and English studies and Belles Lettres.

Professor of Natural and Experimental Philosophy, Ordnance, Gunnery and instructor of Artillery tactics, Major D. TRUEHEART, Graduate of the Virginia Military Institute in 1850—afterwards Assistant Professor of the Va. Military Institute—attached to the United States Coast Survey—late Major and Chief of Artillery in the C. S. Army.

Professor of Mathematics, Civil and Military Engineering, Architecture, Topographical and Industrial Drawing, and Assistant Instructor of Infantry tactics, Maj. W. A. OBENCHAIN, "first distinguished Graduate," of his Class in the Virginia Military Institute, and for efficient and meritorious services during the war, promoted Captain of Engineers in the late C. S. Army.

Professor of Chemistry, Agricultural Chemistry, Geology and Mineralogy, Col. LEWELLYN HOXTON, "Distinguished graduate" of West Point Military Academy, and late Chief of Artillery to Hardee's Corps.

Professor of Latin, French, Ethics and Belles Lettres, to be appointed shortly.

Surgeons Drs. E. & W. S. STRUDWICK.

New appointments will be made, and the Chairs now filled will be subdivided as soon as the number of Cadets makes it desirable.

Applicants for Professorships must be gentlemen of Scientific and Military education, who have served in the field.

Candidates for admission as Cadets are advised to come without delay. Until the 1st. of February next, all those Cadets present at the Academy, will be pushed forward in their studies irrespective of classes, so as to enable them, at that time, to enter the most advanced classes for which they may be found qualified.

By coming at once they may gain an entire year in the term of their education.

For circulars and any other information apply to Gen'l R. E. COLSTON, REMARKS.

1. The location of this College is in one of the most pleasant and cultivated towns in North Carolina, long celebrated for its healthfulness.

2. The Principals assure the public that no pains will be spared to render the institution all that parents and guardians could desire it to be—a suitable place for the education of their daughters and wards.

3. In all of its appointments they intend to make it rank with the foremost colleges of our land. They themselves are not novices in this department of labor, but have had ample experience in teaching, and in conducting such enterprises.

4. Pupils will be allowed to attend such places of worship on sabbath as their parents or guardians may prescribe. One of the teachers will always accompany young ladies to the house of worship.

5. Debts cannot be contracted by the pupils without permission from parents or guardians.

6. Every sleeping room will be supplied with fuel and be carpeted.

7. Pupils must furnish their own towels, and one pair of sheets each, and have their clothing well marked.

PAYMENT:—One half in advance, the other half at the close of the Session.

For further particulars, address either of the principals.

EXECUTOR'S SALE.

ROCKY POINT PLANTATION FOR SALE.

THAT Magnificent Estate known as "STRAWBERRY," the property of LEVIN LANE, deceased, will be sold at public auction on the 1st. day of February next, on the premises.

The tract of land embraces about 4,000 acres; about 700 is cleared and ready for cultivation, and about 300 yet to clear. The balance woodland with Pine, Cypress and Oak growth. It is, without exception, better adapted to the cultivation of than any other plantation of the size in the Congressional District.

It lies about three miles from Marlboro Depot on the Wilmington & Weldon Railroad, which is 12 miles from Wilmington. The plantation lays also, on the North East branch of the Cape Fear River, offering admirable facilities for transportation of produce to the largest market in the State, either by water or rail. Large portions of the land is underlaid with lime stone, affording facilities for manuring by marls and vegetable matter unsurpassed any where. The fencing and ditches are in fair order. The improvements consist in a good Dwelling House with six rooms; large Barns and Stables; ample Negro quarters; Office in the yard: one ten horse Engine with Mill fixtures, capable of grinding seventy-five bushels Corn per day.

At the same time and place will be sold all of the stock consisting of and some of the finest blooded CATTLE in the country, Farming utensils, Corn, Foder, Pork, Ground Peas, Potatoes, &c., &c.

Terms of sale—One-third cash, balance one, two and three years. Title Deeds to be given when all of the payments are made.

For further information, apply to Col. E. D. Hall, Wilmington, and Dr. E. H. Goelette, Goldsboro'.

FOR SALE.

ONE THOUSAND ACRES of valuable land, lying on Neuse River, in the County of Johnson, and on both sides of the N. C. R. R. Road, between Smithfield and Stallings' Depots.

I prefer selling the whole tract to one man, but will cut it into hundred acre tracts to suit purchasers. To a company of men wishing small farms and pleasant healthy locations, it holds out good inducements, as I will sell on favourable terms. Persons wishing to examine the land, and coming by Rail Road, can be put off the Cars at Vinson's Mill, where they will always find me.

I will also sell a TWENTY HORSE power SAW MILL in good working order, with teams, waggons, and all appurtenances.
